Product description

Painted on a cold January morning in the harbor of Saint-Quay-Portrieux, this work captures a moment of winter stillness. Small fishing boats withdraw behind the breakwater, crowned by the quiet presence of the lighthouse. To the left, the sea lies calm, its surface shimmering with soft hues of pink and turquoise—colors so characteristic of winter in Brittany. Though the sun remains hidden, the landscape is suffused with a gentle, silvery light, lending the scene a quiet luminosity.
